Additional Notice Concerning Uncollectability of Receivables Established under the Trade Investment and Insurance System to the Republic of Iraq

Sojitz Corporation ("Sojitz" or "the Company") today announced additional information in connection the press release "Notice Concerning Uncollectability of Receivables Established under the Trade Investment and Insurance System to the Republic of Iraq" issued on November 24, 2005.

1. Type and Amount of Receivables

Approximately ¥2.4 billion (principle amount approximately ¥1.3 billion, delinquency charges approximately ¥1.1 billion) of commercial receivables established under the trade investment and insurance system (excluding credit amounts under claims for trade insurance compensation).

Note: The amount, approximately ¥28.9 billion (principle amount approximately ¥17.4 billion, delinquency charges approximately ¥11.5 billion) of commercial receivables established under the trade investment and insurance system, disclosed on November 24, 2005 was inclusive of credit amounts under claims for trade insurance compensation.

2. Outlook

In connection with the aforementioned receivables, approximately ¥2.0 billion has been deemed uncollectible. As identified in the press release dated November 24, 2005, Sojitz had already recorded allowance for doubtful receivables in the past fiscal year. Accordingly, the Company does not anticipate any material impact of its business results for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2006.
