Notice Regarding Corporate Split of Bearing and Forefront Industry Businesses

Sojitz Corporation (“Sojitz”) hereby announces that it has resolved at a meeting of its Board of Directors held today to split off its bearing and forefront industry businesses and transfer them to Sojitz Machinery Corporation (“SOMAC”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sojitz, effective July 1st, 2021.

As this is a simple absorption-type split in which the businesses will be transferred to a consolidated subsidiary, some details and disclosure items have been omitted from this announcement.

1. Purpose of the Corporate Split

Sojitz is working to optimize the business operations of the entirety of Sojitz Group. With the aim of broadening business domains to grow and raise efficiency of the Machinery & Medical Infrastructure Division’s bearing and forefront industry businesses, including bearing products and bearing parts sales business, Sojitz intends for its wholly-owned subsidiary SOMAC to take on these businesses and chart their growth. In line with this objective, Sojitz will implement the split and transfer the businesses to SOMAC on July 1st, 2021.

2. Outline of the Corporate Split

1) Schedule of the Split:

Resolution date	March 26 th , 2021
Conclusion of the split agreement	April 16 th , 2021 (planned)
Date of split (effective date)	July 1 st , 2021 (planned)

In line with Article 784, Paragraph 3 of the Companies Act, Sojitz will carry out the corporate split without convening a shareholders meeting to approve the split agreement as is usually required by Article 783, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act. (Simple absorption-type split)

2) Split Method

An absorption-type company split in which Sojitz will be the splitting company and SOMAC will be the succeeding company.

3) Allotment of Shares

At the time of the split, SOMAC will issue 100,000 shares of common stock, and allocate all of them to Sojitz.

4) Treatment of Stock Acquisition Rights and Bonds with Stock Acquisition Rights

Sojitz has not issued any stock acquisition rights or bonds with stock acquisition rights.

- 5) Decrease in Capital from the Split
Sojitz's stated capital and capital reserves will not decrease as a result of this split.
- 6) Rights and Obligations Transferred to the Succeeding Company
Assets, liabilities, and the associated rights and obligations related to the bearing and forefront industry businesses will be transferred to the succeeding company.
- 7) Outlook for the Performance of Obligations
Sojitz has determined that no problems are expected regarding the performance of obligations to be borne by Sojitz and the succeeding company after the effective split date.
