Sojitz Corporation

Sojitz Europe plc Opens New Branch in Vienna, Austria

Sojitz Europe plc (Head Office: London, UK; Representative Director: Satoru Takahama), a local subsidiary of Sojitz Corporation (“Sojitz”), has established a new branch in Vienna, Republic of Austria.

Austria is a leading country in Central Europe that serves as an important trade and economic hub in the region due to its geographic proximity to other Central and Eastern European countries. By establishing a branch in Vienna, Sojitz aims to grow its existing motorcycle-related business through information sharing and business development with its core partners in Vienna.

In addition to pursuing growth of existing businesses by leveraging the Vienna Branch’s central location in Europe, Sojitz will flexibly respond to changing needs within the region to provide added value while simultaneously taking on the challenge of developing new business for the purpose of new value creation.
